

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tallahassee Little Theatre is thrilled to present our holiday hit in association with The Governor's Club in an exclusive engagement December 5th & 12th (and possible additional performances on December 6th & 13th).

The Santaland Diaries:

David Sedaris is a well known voice on NPR, and first read his Santaland Diaries on air in 1992. His hilarious accounts of his experience as a Macy's Christmas Elf will entertain, tickle and provide relief from the constant saccharine of the season for many weary holiday celebrants. This acerbic account (told with gusto by Crumpet the Elf) has been called by many "an anti-holiday cult classic".

The Eight: Reindeer Monologues:

Jeff Goode's naughty and impish tale of Christmas Gone Wrong is a must see for anyone interested in the murkier dealings of our favorite "jolly old fellow". All is well in the North Pole until one of Santa's reindeer brings forth a shocking and unexpected accusation of sexual harassment against her boss. Each reindeer tells their reaction, and neither Santa, nor Christmas, will never be the same again. The Chicago Sun-Times recommends advice on what NOT to bring to a showing as follows: "extreme reverence for Santa Claus, anybody under 18 years of age, and an inability to laugh at anything."

Tickets:

Contact the Governor's Club at 224-0650.

Contact:

Naomi Rose-Mock

Director of Marketing & Development

info@tallahasseelittletheatre.org

850-224-4597